ico Are Strained.ADMIRAL MAYO MAY BOMBARD TAMPICORumor in Circulation That Huerta Declines to Salute
American Flag.

Washington, April 14.—All ships of the Atlantic fleet at Hampton Roads have been ordered to Tampico. The transport Hancock with 800 Marines has been ordered from New Orleans to Tampico at once. The battleship South Carolina, enroute from San Domingo has been intercepted by wireless and ordered to Tampico. The gunboats Nashville at San Domingo, and Tacoma, at Boston, also ordered to Tampico. The torpedo flotilla at Pensacola, Fla., notified to be ready to join battleships at Tampico on short notice.

Vera Cruz, April 14.—General Gustavo Maas, the federal commander at Vera Cruz, said the Mexican government has ordered General Morales Zaragoza not to accede to Admiral Mayo's demand—which was that the American flag should be saluted within twenty-four hours—considering that such a step was highly derogatory to national dignity, and also uncalled for.

Washington, April 14.—Relations between the United States and Mexico are nearer the breaking point. It was said at the White House, state department and navy department that no dispatches had been received from Nelson O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City, Admiral Fletcher at Vera Cruz or Admiral Mayo at Tampico, indicating whether Huerta intended complying with the demand of the United States that he order fired a salute of twenty-one guns to the American flag as reparation for the indignities heaped upon the United States by the arrest of a paymaster and a squad of bluejackets of the dispatch boat Dolphin by a Huerta official at Tampico Thursday.

The time limit given Huerta to order this salute fired was 6 p. m. Monday. According to the dispatches received by the state and navy departments from Charge O'Shaughnessy and Admirals Fletcher and Mayo relative to the incidents at Tampico and the demands of the government, Admiral Mayo informed the Huerta government that if the demands were not complied with he would bombard Tampico.

Endorse Admiral's Action.
Admiral Mayo's action was endorsed by President Wilson and Secretary Daniels.

When asked about it the president said the salute will be fired. He stopped there and asked to be excused from saying any more at this time. The president indicated plainly that if Huerta does not order the salute fired the United States will take extreme measures.

There were conferences between different officials of the administration. Secretary Bryan made a full report of the whole situation to President Wilson. Later, Secretaries Bryan and Daniels conferred at length. John Lind, the president's personal adviser in Mexico, who arrived in Washington, was a party to this conference. Secretary Bryan and Mr. Lind again conferred.

The position of the Washington government is one of waiting for information as to whether Huerta had or had not complied with the demands of the United States.

ELECTROCUTED IN MIDAIR

Chicago Youth Climbed on Trestle 135 Feet High.

Chicago, April 14.—Climbing on a trestle 135 feet high to have his picture taken Bernard Walenga, seventeen years old, touched a live wire and was electrocuted. Walter Bagack, his chum, waiting below with a camera, pressed the bulb when he saw Walenga fall and obtained a photograph showing the body in midair.

ALLEGED TRAIN
ROBBER KILLEDSouth Dakota Officers Have Battle With Desperado.

TWO POLICEMEN ARE INJURED

Unknown Man Boards St. Paul Road Train at Bowman, N. D., and Draws Gun When Crew Tries to Throw Him Off—Three Officers at Lemmon, S. D., Kill Him During Exchange of Shots.

Aberdeen, S. D., April 14.—A man believed to have been Harry Mathews, one of the three bandits who held up the Great Northern express train near Bellingham, Wash., in February, killing three passengers, was shot and killed at Lemmon by George Schleng, a special railroad detective, a deputy sheriff and Fred Axtell, chief of police. There has been a reward of $10,000 on Mathews' head since March 23.

Mathews boarded a St. Paul road freight train at Bowman, N. D., after an attempt by the train crew to throw him off. He drew a gun and the crew let him alone, but wired George Schleng, who was at Lemmon, to meet the train upon its arrival.

When the train arrived at Lemmon, Schleng and Axtell were on hand. Mathews was found in a box car. When the officers opened the door of the car the bandit opened fire on them. One bullet struck Chief Axtell in the shoulder, while another struck Schleng over the heart. A bundle of papers in Schleng's inside coat pocket deflected the bullet and saved his life, but caused a severe wound. Another bullet pierced Schleng's sleeve, but did not injure him.

The officers opened fire immediately, killing Mathews instantly. Mathews had been searched for all over the West since he and two companions held up a great Northern passenger train near Bellingham, Wash., on the night of Feb. 20, stampeding passengers and killing three persons. One of the trio of bandits was captured recently in Canada, but the third is still at large.

Al G. Ray, chief of Great Northern's staff of special officers, offered $10,000 reward for Mathews' arrest and conviction and special officers were sent out along lines in this section of the Northwest, feeling certain that he would show up sooner or later.

PICK BULL MOOSE TICKET

Christianson for Senate and Aaker for Governor.

Minot, N. D., April 14.—The Bull Moose state ticket in North Dakota was practically completed at a conference held here. Chairman Dorr Carroll of the state committee announced the following as certain candidates:

United States Senator—A. M. Christianson, Towson.

Governor—H. H. Aaker, Fargo.

Lieutenant Governor—D. R. Jones, Wahpeton.

Attorney General—Dorr M. Carroll, Minot.

Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor—Carl Kleith, Washburn.

State Treasurer—O. O. Mikelson, Wahpeton.

Railroad Commissioner—O. L. Engen, Fargo; M. P. Johnson, Donnybrook, and D. P. Nelson, Glen Ullen.

HE'S COMING BACK TO FIGHT

Colonel Roosevelt Advances Date of Return to Join Campaign.

New York, April 14.—An earlier return of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to this city than was anticipated was foreshadowed in messages received here from Brazil. According to information given out at Progressive state headquarters Mr. Roosevelt will arrive in New York during the third week in May.

The change in plans was ascribed by party workers to his interest in the fortunes of the party.

TWO NEW PACTS ARRANGED

Bryan Exchanges Ratifications With Italy and Norway.

Washington, April 14.—Secretary Bryan and Marquis Cusani Confalonieri, Italian ambassador, exchanged ratifications of the renewed arbitration treaty between Italy and the United States, which will run another five years.

Later Secretary Bryan and Minister Bryn exchanged ratifications of a like treaty with Norway.

Santa Fe Is Fined $5,400.

Santa Fe, N. M., April 14.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad company was fined $5,400 by Federal Judge William H. Pope here when the road pleaded guilty to fifty-four counts charging violation of the twenty-eight and of the sixteen hour laws.

CAPTAIN AMUNDSEN.

Wants $200,000 for His Next Polar Expedition.

AMUNDSEN WANTS $200,000

Amount Required to Equip His Proposed Polar Expedition.

Washington, April 14.—Private reports from Christiania were received here that Captain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, must have $200,000 before he can equip his proposed polar expedition. Explorers and scientists here expressed the belief that it would be practically impossible to raise the required sum.

Amundsen's ship, the Fram, after completing repairs at Montevideo, Uruguay, will sail for Norway, to leave there and pass through the Panama canal to the Pacific coast early in 1915.

The expedition is scheduled to leave the Pacific coast next year to explore the polar basin.

WEDDING TO OCCUR
ON FRIDAY, MAY 8Friends Say McAdoo-Wilson
Ceremony Will Be Private.

Washington, April 14.—Although there has been no formal announcement from the White House of the date for the wedding of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the president and Mrs. Wilson, friends who are in a position to know say Friday, May 8, has been selected tentatively.

The affair is expected to be private. Mr. McAdoo's colleagues in the cabinet being practically the only guests outside of the two families.

During the last few days Washington society has come to accept as settled that the wedding will take place during the first week in May and also that the invitation list will be small.

It is taken for granted that whatever precautions are made for the event will not require the time and busy activity which preceded the Wilson-Sayre wedding last November. Miss Wilson's trousseau, it is said, is practically completed.

SHOTS BROTHER ON DARE

Victor Makki Puts Bullet Through Kinsman's Heart.

Calumet, Mich., April 14.—When Victor Makki, thirty years old, returned home intoxicated he was upbraided by his brother, John Makki, twenty-three years old.

Victor drew a revolver and firing through the ceiling said to his brother:

"I'll give you the same if you don't shut up."

"Go ahead," answered John, baring his breast.

Victor shot him through the heart.

OFFICIAL COMMITS SUICIDE

Chief Supervisor of Federal Indian Bureau Shoots Himself.

Washington, April 14.—E. P. Holcombe, chief supervisor of the Indian bureau, shot and killed himself in a room of a downtown hotel here.

Holcombe's associates believe he was led to take his life through dependence over his physical condition, of which he had complained recently. Officials of the interior department, with whom Holcombe had been associated for twenty years, said the affairs of his office were in perfect shape.

The dead official was fifty years old.

Intimate of Many Writers.

Rochester, N. Y., April 14.—Dr. Frederick Llewellyn Hovey Willis, one of the founders of "Brook Farm," and said to be the original of "Laurie" in "Little Women," died at the home of his daughter here. Dr. Willis was eighty-five years old. He was an intimate of Nathaniel Hawthorne, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Henry D. Thoreau, Margaret Fuller, Louisa M. Alcott and other well known writers.

CLARK'S STAND ON TOLLS CONDONED

House Democrats Will Re-elect
Him if They Hold Control.

FEW SPEAKERS DETHRONED.

Tendency Is to Keep Same Man in Chair as Long as Party is in Power.
Prediction Made That House Will Pass Prohibition Measure "Some Day"—Congressmen Dodge Issue.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 14.—[Special.]—Champ Clark has not lost the speakership in the next congress because he took such a pronounced position against President Wilson on the canal tolls. It is also probable that if Oscar W. Underwood had remained in the house he would have been again chosen chairman of the ways committee and leader of the majority by the Democrats, although he opposed President Wilson. This statement about Clark is on the assumption that the Democrats carry the next house, which will be a disputed point until the returns are all in next November.

Quite a number of people jumped to the conclusion that because Speaker Clark opposed Wilson the president's friends who favored the repeal of the canal tolls proposition would at once form a combination which would unhorse Clark and other men who opposed the repeal. Many Democrats, although they were on the other side, have hastened to assure the speaker that under no circumstances will they be for anybody else and that they will vote for him again.

Speakers Succeed Themselves.

Under the former regime it would have been almost impossible to defeat a speaker as long as his party remained in power. In those days the speaker had the appointment of committees, the absolute power of recognition and was master of the house. In these days the speaker still has a great deal of power, but not anything like that exercised heretofore. So it is quite a tribute to Champ Clark that his Democratic colleagues are flocking to him with assurance of support.

In my recollection two speakers have voluntarily retired without ever reaching a test as to whether their party would supplant them. I refer to Speaker Reed and Speaker Henderson. Toward the close of their terms as speaker both were severely criticised by their party associates, and there was talk of a revolt. Their withdrawal as candidates prevented a test.

Possible Prohibition.

"Some day Hobson will get up there in the house and put through his prohibition amendment," was the comment of one of the members of the house in speaking of the growth of the prohibition movement. He quoted Champ Clark as saying that if that amendment ever came before the house it would go through. Continuing, this member of the house said:

"Of course they will not want to vote on it and they may dodge behind chairs and into cloakrooms and get lost in the office building, but if the question is ever put fairly to a 'yea' and 'nay' vote the fellows that stay in the house will vote for prohibition or enough of them will carry it."

Actually Talked Out.

It seemed rather queer in view of the pressure that is generally made for time to speak in the house of representatives that on one or two occasions lately the so called "general debate" actually collapsed because there was no member of the house that wanted to take the floor. This was after the repeal of the Panama canal tolls, and the house was actually talked out.

Mileage Reform.

The matter of mileage is an important subject to the majority of members of congress. Those who do not live any great distance do not care about the mileage question, as it cuts little figure with them. But to members from a distance 20 cents a mile is a mighty good item. Even from Chicago, where the distance is figured at 800 miles, $160 is allowed, which comes in handy for a little spending money.

Sugar Coated Pills.

If any one would undertake to go through all the speeches that have been made on Panama canal tolls, he would find that nearly every man who differed with the president took occasion to praise him, commend his integrity, his honesty and sincerity of purpose; then most of them would turn to and lambaste him for all they were worth for violating the pledges of the Democratic platform. This might be called "legislative sugar coated pills."

Commended by Foster.

The house had a bill before it recently adding 17,000 acres to a national forest reserve in Idaho for the purpose of furnishing a supply of uncontaminated water to a town. Congressman Foster of Illinois, who is a strong supporter of conservation, made some sarcastic remarks about the bill.

"I am gratified to see," said he, "that they have at last found in the western country some land in the public domain that is forest land. It has been stated so often that all of this land in the forest reserves is barren, and a tree could not grow on it, that it is really refreshing to find at least one tract that the western men are willing to have set apart as a forest reserve."

Egg Yolks.

Eggs of different species of birds greatly differ in shapes, but the yolks are invariably spherical.

WILLIAM SULZER.

His Friends Organize
New Political Party.

INCORPORATE NEW POLITICAL PARTY

Sulzer's Friends May Put Him
Up for Governor.

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—A movement to bring about the nomination of William Sulzer as an independent candidate for governor this fall took definite form here in the incorporation of the "American party" by friends of the deposed executive.

Among the incorporators are Colonel Alexander S. Bacon and Samuel Bell Thomas, former attorneys for Sulzer, and Emil Kovarik, who acted as body guard to the former governor while he was in office. Chester O. Platt, formerly the governor's secretary, filed the papers.

Some of the purposes of the party, as set forth in the incorporation papers, are to "drive out corrupt politicians, advocate election reforms, promote progressive legislation, bring about greater constitutional powers for the government to fight corrupt practices, and to make peace between capital and labor."

"There will be a complete state ticket headed by Governor Sulzer," Colonel Bacon said, explaining the purposes of the new party. "Anti-Tammany Democratic assemblymen, senators and congressmen will be selected, with a complete anti-Tammany state committee and anti-Tammany county committees."

WILSON DISAPPROVES PLAN

Objects to Curtailment of Anti-Trust Legislative Program.

Washington, April 14.—Unqualified disapproval was expressed by President Wilson of the proposal in congress to curtail the anti-trust legislative program for this session.

Later members of the house judiciary subcommittee who had conferred with the president declared that an effort will be made to report out quickly a single measure embodying the substance of all the separate tentative trust bills and that legislation also will be pressed to meet the demands of labor for restriction of the injunction power of the courts.

DISMISS LAND FRAUD CASES

Indictments Against Florida Company
Thrown Out.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 14.—Indictments charging the Florida Fruit Lands company and R. J. Bolles and J. L. Billingsley, its officers, with fraudulent use of the mails in promoting the sale of 180,000 acres of land in the Florida everglades, were dismissed by United States Commissioner Brennan here.

Another charge of using the mails to conduct a lottery is pending against the fruit lands company and officers in charge of the sale of the everglades tracts.

MINERS CALL OFF STRIKE

Many Michigan Men Unable to Secure Employment.

Calumet, Mich., April 14.—Many former strikers, who, since July 23, have denounced copper mining companies in bitter terms, gathered about the offices and wept when told that there was no work for them because all could not be accommodated at once. It will be months before a majority of the strikers can be taken back to work, mine officials announced.

The district union of the Western Federation of Miners officially declared closed the strike that has been on for months and which caused bloodshed and the closing of numerous mines. In an official statement by Secretary Charles Heitalla of the district union it is announced that 4,740 votes were cast, 3,104 in favor of ending the strike and 1,636 to continue.

APPROPRIATIONS HELD VALID

South Dakota Supreme Court Rules
in Case Against Auditor.

Pierre, S. D., April 14.—The supreme court, in an opinion by Justice Whitling, denied a writ of prohibition asked for in the case of the State ex rel. John Logstaff against H. B. Anderson, state auditor.

In this action the question of the constitutionality of appropriations known as contingent funds, such as the game fund, dairy fund and various expense funds, was raised.

The court holds in effect that there is no constitutional regulation of the language required in making an appropriation. Any language showing the legislative intent is sufficient. Furthermore, there is no constitutional limitation on what appropriations a legislature may make.

ARRIVES FROM VERA CRUZ

John Lind Returns to Washington
From Mexico.

Washington, April 24.—The presence in Washington of John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico for the last eight months, gave the Washington government an advisor with special knowledge of the military situation at Tampico. Mr. Lind reached here from Vera Cruz aboard the presidential yacht Mayflower and spent several hours with Secretary Bryan. Authoritatively it is stated that Mr. Lind's reports on the general situation were so comprehensive and complete that he really did not have to come to Washington to supplement them.

Mr. Lind has found life in the tropics somewhat fatiguing, but he declared his health had not suffered.

BLOCKS JEFFERSON TRIBUTE

Kentucky Democrat Objects to Commission to Plan Memorial.

Washington, April 14.—Thomas Jefferson's birthday anniversary was celebrated in the house with Representative Clark, Democrat, of Florida making a speech and proposing that President Wilson, Chief Justice White and Speaker Clark be named as a commission to plan a memorial to mark Jefferson's birthplace at Old Shadwell, Va.

Representative Johnson, Democrat, of Kentucky prevented consideration of a resolution to that effect on the ground that other business was pending.

Mr. Clancy came to Albany and told his story to Superintendent John B. Riley of the state prison department and Governor Glynn. The warden first issued a formal statement rehearsing a part of what Crofici told him and later added details which included Crofici's admission that he and other gangsters had sought Rosenthal two nights before the slaying.

Yields to Mother's Plea.

The statement, which was made verbally in the principal keeper's office, was the result of the instant plea on the part of Crofici's mother and his sister for the truth. They had been there and made an unsuccessful appeal to the governor to save the prisoner's life. Returning to the prison near dawn they were met by the warden and taken to the office, where they met Crofici.

Dago Frank Unfolds Plot to Kill Rosenthal.

DOES NOT INVOLVE BECKER

Shortly Before Going to the Electric

Chair Crofici Says He Was in on the Job, but Was Five Miles Away

When Carried Out—Says Gyp the Blood, Lefty Louie and Harry Val-

lon Fired the Shots.

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—Shortly before Dago Frank Crofici went to the death chair in Sing Sing prison he told Warden Clancy that Gyp the Blood, Lefty Louie, an informer, fired the shots which killed Herman Rosenthal, for which crime the four gunmen paid their lives.

"So far as I know Becker had nothing to do with this case," the gunman also declared. "It was a gamblers' fight."

Crofici averred he was five miles away at the time the crime was committed and that Whitey Lewis Seidenshner, although present at the scene of the shooting, did not fire any of the shots.

Crofici made no attempt, however, to deny that he was included in the original plot to slay Rosenthal, even admitting that two nights before the gambler was slain he went with other gangsters to look for their intended victim. They were frightened away from Rosenthal on that occasion by men they thought were detectives.

The condemned man also admitted that early on the night of the actual killing he was in the gray "murder car" with the gunmen, but he insisted that he left them before they shot the gambler.

He did not explain precisely why he left the other gunmen just prior to the shooting, but two reasons are advanced. One is that he became frightened and the other that he deserted in order to bail out his sweetheart, Jean Gordon, who had been arrested.

Yields to Mother's Plea.

The statement, which was made verbally in the principal keeper's office, was the result of the instant plea on the part of Crofici's mother and his sister for the truth. They had been there and made an unsuccessful appeal to the governor to save the prisoner's life. Returning to the prison near dawn they were met by the warden and taken to the office, where they met Crofici.

Mr. Clancy came to Albany and told his story to Superintendent John B. Riley of the state prison department and Governor Glynn. The warden first issued a formal statement rehearsing a part of what Crofici told him and later added details which included Crofici's admission that he and other gangsters had sought Rosenthal two nights before the slaying.

According to Mr. Clancy practically everything that Crofici said after he started to make his final statement was voluntary. His defense of the Becker case came absolutely without suggestion from any one, the warden maintained.

Crofici's statement was not wholly unexpected. It was rumored last Thursday that he might talk and this caused the governor to send Mr. Riley to Sing Sing. The prisoner gave Mr. Riley a statement which contradicted the later one in some minor details, but it contained little more information than had been brought out previously. After making his statement to Mr. Clancy, Crofici almost collapsed and this was the cause of the sudden switch in the warden's plans which sent Dago Frank to the chair first instead of Gyp the Blood.

CURIOUS CROWDS GATHER

Bodies of Four Gunmen Arrive in New York City.

New York, April 14.—The bodies of the four gunmen electrocuted in Sing Sing prison were brought back here. Emotional thousands from the East Side followed that of Whitey Lewis on its way to the grave.

At the home of a Harlem church warden, where the body of Gyp the Blood was taken, the police reserves were called out to prevent curious hundreds from entering.

At the Empress

It is seldom that the theatre going public of Brainerd has the opportunity of seeing a masterpiece in photography, but the management of the Empress has succeeded at a great expense in booking one of the most wonderful films ever released, for Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

"The Toll of Labor" is adapted from Emile Zola's great novel, "Germinal." Zola's immortal work is said to have gained new lustre from this wonderful production. The finest actors in France were employed for this great play. This is one of the most enthralling stories ever shown on the screen and reaches the heart as only Zola's great masterpieces can do when interpreted by the great artists that the old world affords.

The "Toll of Labor" is a realistic story which ranks supreme as one of the labor plays of the age.

The Empress also has another treat for this week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the next series of the "Kathlyn Adventures" will be shown. These famous pictures are too popular and well known to need mentioning, as each picture is more interesting and scenic effects more beautiful as the series advances.

At the Grand

One of the most interesting films that the management has offered is the "Vagabond Soldier" which will be shown this evening. The scenes are laid in Afghanistan, Asia, and the jungles and general types of country and villages makes a most attractive setting. The story is that of a British officer fighting with the natives and his trials are that of intense interest. Don't forget our special feature film for Friday and Saturday evenings entitled "Jane Eyre". Those who have read the book will take great pleasure in viewing this attractive photo play, and for those who have not become acquainted with Charlotte Brontë's characters, we invite you especially to come and meet them.

There will be a meeting of the organizing and electing a chief

r. Mr. Lowry also announced after meeting tonight to be lead-himself to study methods of per-ory system that is in use in y places and has proven valu-

to many in memorizing the Bible.

Mr. Lowry expressed disappoint-
t that the offering Sunday eve-had been only $24 when there such a large crowd present. He the fact is some people will only up money when they are chloro-med and then it has to be taken in them.

The evangelist has valuable mental owment for his work in its pecucharacter. He knows how to be orous without being silly and castic without any bitterness. He is a story without pointing you to suspicion that the laugh that ows is his main object.

The text last evening was from lm 85:6: "Wilt Thou Not Reus again; that thy people may ice in thee?"

He said: "My theme is Revivals.
ne think that the time of revivals past. Not so. We are living in time of great problems—economic religious. God is as strong today He was in the days of old. The ditions are the same for revivals they have ever been. God is about the people are here, sin is pres-
These are the conditions of reval.

How may a revival be brought out? Why, we must believe in ivals. That is the first requisite.
revival is not something originated
recent years.

There was a revival in the time
Moses; one in the time of Nehe-ah; Elijah on Mt. Carmel had a eat spiritual outpouring; John the aptist brought a multitude of peo-
to their knees in the wilderness Judea; Pentecost was a glorious vival. Then one sermon converted ree thousand men now it takes ree thousand sermons to convert e man.

The objection that one hears to re-vals is that it causes undue excite-
ent. Yet right excitement is good.
o one ought to deny that. We do ot object to one "hollering his head Y" at a baseball game. Yet if one were to sing out "Praise the Lord" in a revival meeting people would say

"here now, don't get excited."

Another objection is that revivals don't last. Of course revivals don't last. We do not want them to last.
The effect is what we want to last and this does last. The revival at Pentecost lasted but one day but the effect of that revival is still going on in the world and will go on till the last day. That religious movement changed the order of Christianity.

Another objector says "well I don't believe in evangelists." If this is the case he does not believe in the Bible. God's Word tells us of evangelists. Paul in Ephesians said,
"And he gave some to be prophets,
some to be apostles and some to be evangelists, for the work of the ministry." The evangelist has his place just as much as the clergyman,
the teacher or the prophet.

Another objector urges that it costs too much money. Let us see how valid an objection that is. A circuit will come to a town and take out $14,000 or $20,000 and no one urges that as an objection to circuits.
If you want a circuit you must pay the price. A revival campaign will only cost a few hundred dollars. Considering results of a well planned and prayed out religious stimulus the money part is not to be taken into consideration. The picture shows will take from the people more money
in two weeks than this campaign
will cost altogether.

Revivals are not abnormal they are normal. A revival in business is not abnormal. A revival in interest in music is normal.

In order to have a revival you must get things out of the way. God will not do for you what you can do for yourselves. He told the people at the grave of Lazarus "to roll away the stone." They could do that and that was their part to do. His part was to say "Lazarus come forth." The church people rolled away the dead
stone then Jesus raised the dead man to life. Jesus will refuse to do the work of the church members.

The stones of stumbling to revival work are many. The first one is the spirit of sectarianism. There is a good deal of 'churchanity' where there ought to be Christianity. These are not the same in idea. I have seen none of this spirit in Brainerd among these pastors. It ought not to exist we have one God, one Father
of all, we are made of one blood,
one hope of salvation, one Savior.

The second stone is bitterness and pride of heart. We are living in the Laodicean dispensation, that is, we are neither hot or cold, neither fish nor fowl. The church has too much to enjoy, too little to endure. The possibility is that the church may die of stagnation. A little persecution is a good thing. It made the church strong in the apostolic days.
The caste system prevails in the church and it is as strong as that prevailing among the Hindoos, and just as disheartening.

Women do not want their husbands converted for fear that it might take them from a business or occupation that would lessen their income. They want their husbands to be like they are fair without but ready within to make any shift that will conform to convention.

One woman in Illinois said, "yes
our church is united. We are splendidly united." "That is good," said the visiting clergyman. "We are frozen together," said she.

Another stone of stumbling is the spirit of worldliness that exists
among the churches in their membership. An insult to God and heaven is the thing you call a "charity" ball.
Eighty-five per cent of the fallen women owe their initial impulse to the dance. When a woman attends a charity ball without enough cloth-

SEVERAL LIVES ARE LOST

story apartment house here. Many ing to flag a hand car she is a "precious" sight.

What is the difference between the average person and the person of the world. It would take a scientist with a microscope to determine any difference.

If we are going to have a revival
we must have prayer. Pentecost was preceded by ten days of prayer, then a ten minute sermon, and the result was the three thousand converts. The price is prayer.

If we want a revival we must honor God's word. I believe in the Bible from Genesis to Revelation. It must be builded up in God's word. Going to church no more makes a man a Christian than going to the barn makes him a horse. If you are indifferent to the service of God how can you expect anything from God.

If you want a revival you must give your money. "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse," "Honor
the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of your increase."

If it is true that in heaven we live in the kind of a mansion that is built up of the material we send up thither some will have to live in a chicken coop through out eternity.

The church is often made a place to show off good clothes. It is not made the place to get religion.

If you want a revival stand by the preachers. The saddest sight is to see the church members sitting down and demanding that the preacher do all the work. They generally haul around a new pastor in a chariot.
The final scene is the pastor between the shafts hauling the "bunch."

Most pastors have in their number of members workers typified by mules, goats, bees and skunks. In other words kickers, butters, stingers and stinkers.

We are ambassadors of God. All heaven is watching this effort in Brainerd. God and all heaven is pledged to our help. This is God's work we are His servants.

TWO FILE FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

S. F. Alderman and G. S. Swanson
File for Office at Same Time on Monday Afternoon

J. F. SMART MAKES STATEMENT

Announces that he Will Not be a Candidate for the Office of County Auditor

As the clock marked the hour of 5 on Monday afternoon, S. F. Alderman and G. S. Swanson filed for the office of county attorney. Mr. Alderman has served as state senator,
county attorney, clerk of the district court and held other offices and enjoys an acquaintance in Crow Wing county which covers every community. Mr. Swanson is the present incumbent and is completing his first term of office.

At St. Paul today A. M. Opsahl
filed for the office of senator from this district. Mr. Opsahl is and has served as city treasurer of Brainerd. He served on the council in former years.
This now makes two candidates who have filed for the office of senator George H. Gardner who first filed and Mr. Opsahl.

J. F. Smart, county auditor, in an interview today, made this statement for the consideration of the people of Crow Wing county:

"Once again the time approaches
when the office holder must ask leave of the people.

"Having spent eight years steady-ly in your service I feel like taking a vacation and therefore ask your permission to shift the burden. I speak of this now so that you may have ample time to make a new selection.

"Winning and losing I believe I have now made more campaigns than any other man in the court house.
In time one loses his zest in the game. I call your attention also to the fact that I have now been auditor as long as any other member in this county, with one exception; and in case I should complete another term which has now lengthened to four years, I should then be credited with a longer period of service than any other man in the history of the office. I do not aspire to break the record in this matter and therefore ask to be relieved at the close of the present year.

It was my privilege to come into office the same year that the county board made the first levy for paying the bonded indebtedness of the county, and during these years have taken a keen interest in watching the gradual lowering of the figures from $285,000 or more down to about $250,000. Now we are entering o new era, a period of expansion in which it becomes necessary to bond again for large sums.

"Having been identified with the debt-paying period, I am content to let some other name be linked with the coming debt-increasing period.

"I am not unmindful of the honors bestowed, and when I think of the communities who have been voting almost solidly for me as often as election day came around, I am loth to take any action which might seem to them like shirking a duty, and I might feel some regret were it not for the fact that among the capable men of experience who will shortly offer for the work, you will no doubt be able to select one who will faithfully safeguard your interests.

"I rejoice with you in the prosperity manifested in our county, and the benefits sure to be realized in the immediate future, and at some future date, with your permission, I might again enter the public service.

SCARLET FEVER IN CITY LOCKUP

Thomas Clark, a Transient, Gets the Disease While Serving Time in City Jail

NOW REMOVED TO W. BRAINERD

Claims he had Worked in a Rooming House in St. Paul that had been Recently Fumigated

Hoboes will give Brainerd a wide berth this spring for the city lockup has housed a virulent case of scarlet fever.

Thomas Clark, a transient, was serving time there and took sick and Dr. R. A. Beise was called. He diagnosed it as scarlet fever and the patient was removed to a house the city designated in West Brainerd.

The jail was fumigated. However, a few microbes, harder than the rest, may have run the gauntlet of all the fumigating stuff and may be in waiting ready to pounce on any "bo"
consigned to the city bastille and accordingly it is better to stay out of jail than to be consigned to the place.

A municipal rock pile or wood pile
is bad enough, but a scarlet fever jail caps the climax and there is nothing in a tramp's hieroglyphics attached to a gate post which cover such a situation.

Clark says that he had worked in a rooming house in St. Paul that had recently been fumigated and believes he got his scarlet fever there.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co.
44 Drill Holes Reveal a Rich
Property on North Range

WORK OF IRON MOUNTAIN CO.
Cuyuna Realty Co. Lease of Jamison
& Peacock Holdings in Section
1-46-29

Drilling on the property of the Cuyuna Iron and Manganese Ore company's property near Crosby is now going on in hole No. 44. Ore was struck at 65 feet and the first sample ran over 60 per cent in iron. At last reports the drill was down nearly 200 feet and was showing up an excellent grade of good ore. This hole was put down to a good depth to test out the ore body in this particular district.

This company now has 44 drill holes down on their property and it is a noticeable fact that each one has found the iron formation and although one hole is down 525 feet and bottomed in good ore, yet none of the holes has gone through the ore body and none has gone to depth where the possibility of not finding ore at greater depth did not appear.

Most of this company's ore is located in the northern part of their forty and while some drilling has been done near the big Pennington pit, yet the fact that stripping is going on within about 150 feet of the south line, the company is pretty positive that it has ore over the entire forty, from the north body of ore right down to the one the Pennington is now stripping and shipping.

The new standard mining shaft of the Iron Mountain Mining company has been safely anchored at a depth of 117 feet, showing up 47 feet of highgrade manganiferous ore, which competent mining men, according to officials of the company, after careful examination claim to be the best yet located in formation. The officers and directors of the company have decided to follow a policy of economy. Operations have been closed down for a period and the mine placed in charge of one man, Capt. N. B. Roscorla. The company has opened negotiations with two of the largest independent furnace men in America as to the advisability of their taking over the company's lease at an advance royalty. Such negotiations, it is reported, have continued along satisfactory lines to date. Negotiations have been entered into covering a three years' contract for the tonnage of the mine.

Secretary T. J. St Germaine reports the property clear of all encumbrances, and with no financial obligations and that with the expenditure of a small financial outlay the company is in position to place the mine on a shipping basis within sixty days. The railroad has been connected with the mine.

The Cuyuna Iron & Land company has given a release of option to Herman Tholen, the property being situated in the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter, the east half of the southwest quarter, the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10, township 47, range 28, Patrick Hammel, of Duluth, has assigned an undivided one-sixteenth interest in a lease to lots 3, 4, the south half of the southwest quarter of section 16, township 46, range 29.

There has been placed on record a mining contract between Roscoe C. Jamison, Albert F. Gross of Duluth; Edmund F. Gross, of Ironton; Dan C. Peacock, of Brainerd; John D. Lamont, of Virginia, all parties of the first part and the Cuyuna Realty Co., of the second part. The consideration is $5,000, the lease extending 60 years from October 13, 1909 and the land situated in the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 1, township 46, range 29. It is subject to a certain lease by Hans Andersen to R. C. Jamison, Dan C. Peacock and Albert F. Gross. The grantee will pay royalty to the lessors of the primary lease of 12 cents a ton, and to the lessors under the new lease 50 cents a ton for all iron containing less than .060 of 1 per cent phosphorus, but for all iron ore containing less than .060 of 1 per cent or more phosphorus, the Cuyuna Realty Co. shall pay 30 cents per long ton in addition to 12 cents due under the lease of October 13, 1909. The Cuyuna Realty Co. agrees further to pay the lessors $5,000 the first year, $12,500 the second year and each year thereafter $25,000.

H. J. Kruse has resigned as superintendent of the Rogers, Brown Ore Co. in the Cuyuna range district. He had been with the company six years. Mr. Kruse came to the range when not a producing mine existed. He superintended the drill work and Deerwood was first his headquarters. The shaft at the Kennedy mine was sunk and the first timber shaft experienced a lot of trouble. The quicksand was safely penetrated. In these days of quick railroad construction one has no idea of the obstacles overcome by Mr. Kruse. For a long time Mr. Kruse had to transport supplies, machinery and coal, timber, etc., by four-horse team from Deerwood to the mine, and the roads were none of the best. The Soo line came afterwards. Then followed further pioneer work at the Meacham mine where a cement shaft was sunk, but where little mining was done. The Armour No. 1 and the Armour No. 2 were developed and entered the shipping lists. Mr. Kruse had six years practical experience from office work to engineering at the Champion Ore company mine in Michigan before coming to this range. He is a graduate of the Houghton school of mines. Mr. Kruse has considerable interests on the Cuyuna range.

In Brainerd a source of great interest is the drilling being done by the Longyear Exploration Co. at the county poor farm three miles east. Here the first hole, an angle hole, has been sunk to a depth of 442 feet. Blue prints and samples have been furnished the county commissioners as per contract entered into with the county. No ore was found in the first hole.

The Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd is working on its second shaft, cement being worked in back of the timber walls of the three-compartment shaft. It is now down over 40 feet and but little water has been encountered so far. In the first shaft the quicksand was struck at 70 feet depth. Considerable machinery is on the ground and the company has pumps on hand ready to be installed when needed.

Frank and Charles Oberg, C. L. Treney and Scott Ewers of LeMars, Iowa and L. S. Potter of Harlan, Iowa have been on the range examining interests of the Gopher Iron company. At the Rowe pit mine at Riverton the Cuyuna Range Power company is installing three transformers, changing the voltage from 35,000 to 2,300 volts. As soon as the weather permits, the hydraulic operations will be started up. The steam shovel has been kept busy all winter. The Pennington pit mine is operating a shovel and is expected to ship soon. The Thompson mine of the Inland Steel company has a shovel and a large crew at work and will soon start shipping.

The Barrows mine at Barrows has accumulated large stockpiles and will ship heavily this season. The Armour No. 2 mine of the Rogers, Brown Ore Co. is running light at present. The Rogers, Brown Ore Co. are in the market for pig iron only. Loading directly into cars are the Kennedy mine at Cuyuna and the Armour No. 2 mine near Ironton. The honor of shipping the first ore this season belongs to the Armour No. 2.

The Cuyuna-Duluth and the Cuyuna-Mille Laes mines of the Lockwood-Donahue interests, now that they are assured of furnace connections, will, it is reported, get out a large tonnage. The Wilcox mine at Woodrow has its three-compartment timber shaft down 29 feet. The Adams mine at Oreland has Capt. William J. Treloar in charge. There are about 2,000 tons in stockpile. Pumping water, 270 gallons are being handled. A big electric pump of 1,500 gallons capacity will soon be installed by the Cuyuna Range Power company.
